

Penile clamp for Male incontinence

- * Washable and reusable
- * Made of soft rubber sponge
- * Sized by penis circumference

The Cunningham Penile Clamp is an effective device to help control male urinary incontinence. This simple male incontinence product/device has helped thousands of men cope with the dribbling and incontinent side effects secondary to prostate cancer, stroke, and other urinary problems.